Killims, exotic plants, wicker, natural wood, African animals and a natural palette with predominance of earth and green tones will inevitably take you to an ethnic environment with an authentic spirit.

The design team of SANRAFAEL collects all these influences in a door project that, despite being transportable to other styles, prints a characteristic personality closely related to the essence of Africa.

Long Lasting Elegance

Contrast between the clarity of white walls and the generally dark furniture, although you can also see completely clear spaces.

(both in space and furniture)

Traditional forms such as mouldings on walls, ceilings and doors, skirting boards of considerable height are maintained. Furniture of simple lines of conservative essence, are combined with high quality fabrics. Smooth or with subtle patterns of soft colors that hardly stand out.

Mixing of more modern pieces through its design or its finishing material. Like the contrast of sofas and toughened glass tables and shining metal.

RECOMMENDATION:

Renew the classic with the new stepped neoclassical beading. Highly recommended for models 100 and 202.

A classic more modernized look conserving the richness of natural wood. Can you imagine it in walnut, steamed beach, ash, or a special stain?

A very elegant door that fits with almost any style with the right finish.

Interview

Passion for the wood

Ángel Privado

Wood Section Manager. 31 years in Puertas Sanrafael

Ángel, what would you highlight of your work at Puertas Sanrafael? After more than 30 years at the service of this company I see it imperative to continue being attentive to every piece of wood that enters the factory, measuring its properties, sealing it, stabilizing it and preparing it for its perfect incorporation to our doors.

What is your job?

Each wood has some characteristics. The first thing I do is measure the moisture so that it is correct. If there is no balance the whole process can break down. I read each board and distribute it according to its characteristics for one use or another. Lippings and beadings are very complex products that require years of research and experience for their use.

Are all woods equal?

Not all the same, there is an infinity of wood with different hardness, drawing, colour, tonality, degree of moisture, elasticity ... each parameter determines a different aspect and use.

Which woods are most in demand?

After three decades I can talk about cycles. The tenders send and we are at the service of the client. Now the walnut has gone up. The oak has always been in great demand and woods such as chestnut and ash lend themselves to staining, so they have a game. But it is also a pleasure to work with exotic woods because they are more special pieces and you know that they will be used in an exclusive project.

The magic of the model 104 is based on the combination of beading around the door or wardrobes. Its sincere simplicity gives rise to different styles of decoration - classic, modern, rustic or ethnic ... - This has made it the protagonist of all kinds of spaces, multiplying the aesthetic and functional possibilities.

The elegant design of its reliefs is evident in the folding cabinet, which we can manufacture to measure and with customizable interiors.

Clean shapes in natural wood stain in a traditional impeccable model. If you are one of those who are looking for versatility, the 100X model will fit both classic and modern decoration. We recommend walnut, oak or stain in dark tones. Choose your design thinking about the decoration.

Among our architrave you will find the MNU model, to match the interior trim of the door, which will give the whole set a modern and avant-garde look.
